SAND DUNE SAFARIS

TIN CITY SAFARI

 PORT STEPHENS
NSW, AUSTRALIA

Lower Car Park, End of James Patterson Street, Anna Bay

Tin City began in the early 1900's when 2 tin shacks were built for shipwreck survivors. During the great depression of the 1930's, Tin City grew to over 36 huts. Eleven of these huts still stand today. Tin City is the last legal squatter settlement in Australia! Learn more about this fascinating "City" amid the sand dunes on our Tin City Safari.
